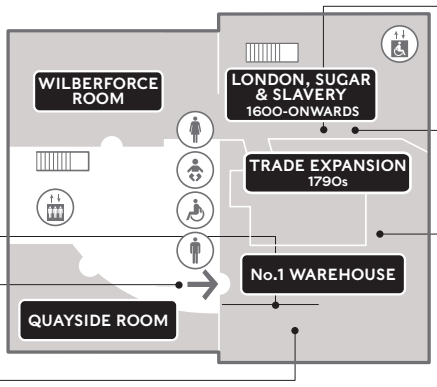
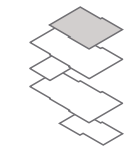
3





Destination board sign, c.1926-1950

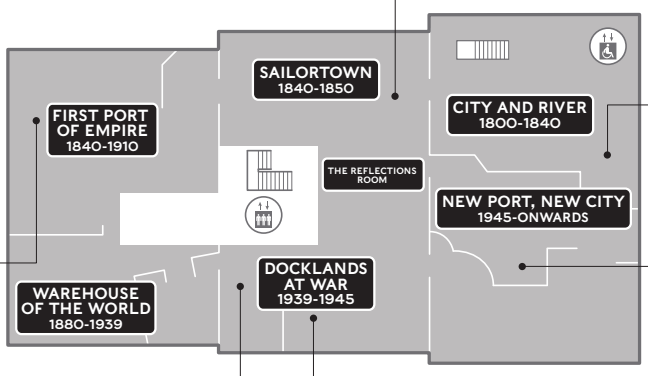
Warehouse winch, c.1820

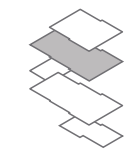
Buxton Table, on which the Slavery Abolition Act was drafted

A machete, typical of those used on the plantations by the enslaved

Whale jaw bones from the late 1700s found in the Thames

2





Stevedore's banner made to celebrate the success of the 1889 Dock Strike

World War II consol shelter

Venture into the dark alleyways of Sailortown

Souvenir for the opening of the first tunnel under the Thames in 1827

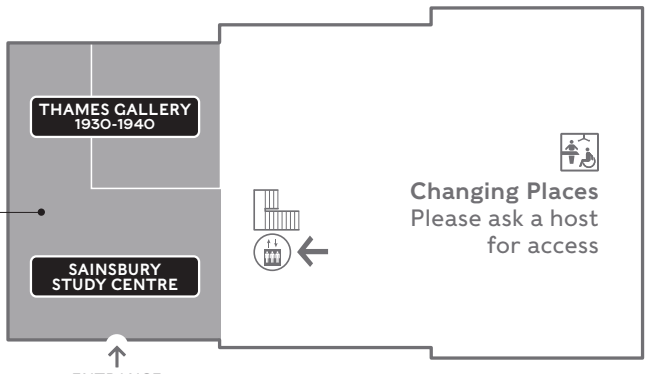
Model of modern day Canary Wharf

Section of molten column from World War II

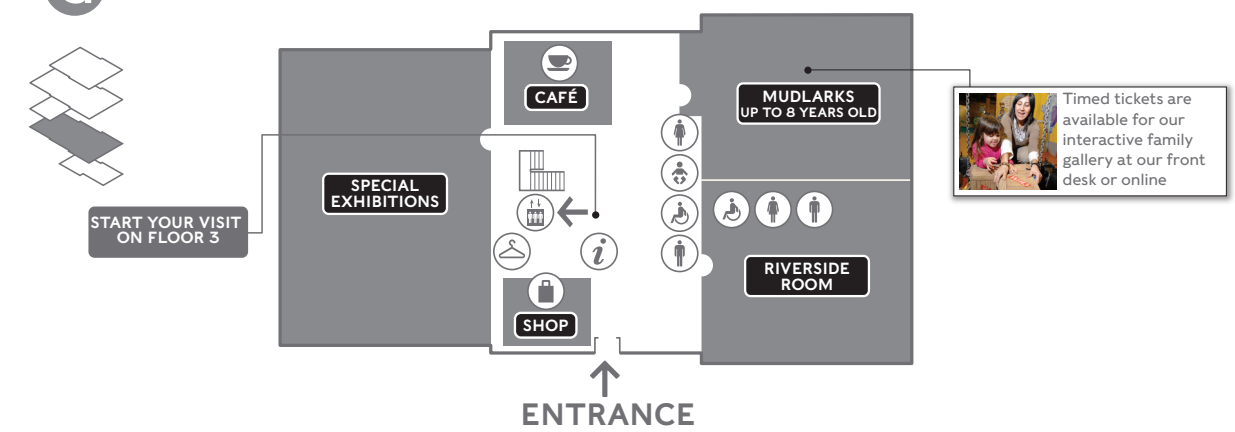
1

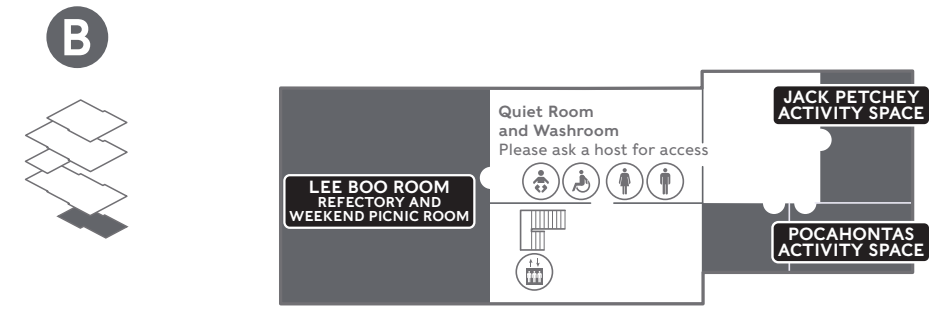
Visit the Sainsbury Study Centre to access a range of archive material

Sainsbury's famous Red Label Tea, 1915



G



Timed tickets are available for our interactive family gallery at our front desk or online


B